Lent Retreat with Deacon Ed

From the Rector

This is a year in which Easter falls early, and so Lent begins while we have barely taken down the Christmas decorations. It seems as though we were just working on New Year's resolutions and already we have to be considering our Lenten devotions.

This year, we will be re-introducing a traditional Lenten practice. On two Saturdays, we will be holding Quiet Days. These are mornings set aside to reflect, pray, and be still. I will be conducting the first Quiet Day on February 16th. I will offer three meditations on living out the baptismal covenant. In the first, I will reflect on the promises we make when we are baptized or when we re-new our baptismal covenant. In the last two meditations, I will explore the calls to ministry and to discipleship.

I'm not sure what my Lenten discipline will be this year, but I am committed to reflecting on ministry and discipleship. I invite you to reflect as well on your journey following Christ.

Blessings, MAB+

The Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension held on Sunday January 27th, 2013 was efficiently led by Father Michael in accordance with the Church's by-laws and rules of order. In addition to the annual reports, the meeting included the orderly election of the new Vestry. I want to thank the parishioners for supporting me as Senior Warden for 2013. In addition to my legal and financial responsibilities, I see my role is to assist Father Mike and support his other roles and accountabilities. I take comfort in fulfilling this task having worked with Jay Packer over this past year as we learned more about the challenges and opportunities that face the Clergy, Vestry, and Diocese.

At the Vestry Organizational Meeting following the Annual Meeting, the following officers of the Vestry were elected. I am pleased to announce that John Buchanan has agreed to serve as Junior Warden, Rob Stockly as Parish Treasurer, and Kathy Calleton as Parish Clerk. Fortunately for us, Lavette Teague will serve as Treasurer Emeritus, assisting Rob in learning the numerous duties of the Treasurer and providing an oversight of the financial process. In addition to the officers named above, the class of 2013-14 will include Vestry members Susan Clifton, Kieko Sakatani, Ross Kellock, and Pam Harrison. Jay Packer will remain on the Vestry as member and Ex-officio.

I genuinely look forward to getting to know more parishioners and serving the church this coming year. Your input on all matters of the Ascension Church will be greatly appreciated.

That's a really good question, and my guess is that the competition will be particularly challenging this year. The same ole – same ole just doesn't cut it. Oh sure, there's the old reliable candy thing, but Valentine's Day is the day after Ash Wednesday so that doesn't seem like such a good idea. Ahhh...desserts – that's the way to go. Wait, I have a better idea....fish on Friday's. Instead of the Big Mac, I'll go for the Filet-O-Fish...another not so bright idea at 380 calories and a nutritional value of D+. I'm running out of ideas. Stop, stop...I know what I need to do – I'll walk to work every day...well maybe three times a week, twice if it's raining.

Personally, I don't think that when Jesus went off to be alone for forty days and forty nights. it was about giving anything up. It was about finding a way to face head on the distractions and temptations of everyday life while at the same time "being still and listening."

"Do something for you, bringing something to you – that's not what you're after.
Being religious, acting pious – That's not what you're asking for.
You've opened my ears so I can listen." (Psalm 40:6 The Message)

This Lent at Ascension there will be three opportunities to do just that....be still and to listen. On Saturday, February 16th, join Fr. Michael from 9AM – 12PM for a Quiet Morning of prayer, reflection, being still, and listening. On Saturday, March 2nd, I'll be leading a retreat from 9AM - 12 PM entitled "Reclaiming Our Sacred Identities." And finally, on Sunday, March 10th after both services, there will be an opportunity to come together and share what we've learned about being still, listening, and knowing.

And the nominees for the 2013 Golden Halo Awards are.....

*Be still,
Deacon Ed+*

A bartender notices that every evening, without fail, one of his patrons orders three beers. After several weeks of noticing this pattern, the bartender asks the man why he always orders three beers. The man says, "I have two brothers who have moved away to different countries. We promised each other that we would always order an extra two beers whenever we drank as a way of keeping up the family bond." Several weeks later, noticing that the man only ordered two beers, the bartender said, "Please accept my condolences on the death of one of your brothers. You know, the two beers and all..." The man replied, "You'll be happy to hear that my two brothers are alive and well... It's just that I, myself, have decided to give up drinking for Lent."

Join us...

During Lent, the Tuesday Prayer meeting at 11:00 am will be doing Stations of the Cross as well as meditation and prayers for the people during Lent.

All are invited.

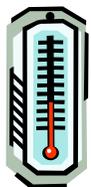

The Vergers Rant

There is only one work party before Easter; can you believe it! Depending on the weather and the condition of the premises, I may call another work party as well as the putting up of the palms for Palm Sunday.

Stay tuned !

Bad Weather Shelter Dinner Update

Thanks to the 15 volunteers who prepared and served dinner at the Pasadena Bad Weather Shelter on January 31st, and especially to first-time participants Cora Campbell, Sandra Dickey, Elliott Macintosh, and Mandy Macintosh. It's a lot of work putting on a dinner for some 200 hungry people, but it's also a lot of fun working together, meeting new people, and doing something truly worthwhile. Our next shelter dinner will be on Tuesday, February 26th. We are in need of servers, and people who can do prep work. We also need donations to cover the cost of food for both dinners.

There is a sign-up sheet on the bulletin board in Hawks Hall, or you can contact Carol Rasmussen at 355-5135 or carol.r@att.net.

Part of the crew serving dinner: Sandra Dickey, Maria Dodd, Mike and Maggie Outhouse, and Charley Noecker.

Seamus Dodd, Scott Callihan, Cameron Cox, and Elliott Macintosh handed out bedding to the guests.

NOTES FROM THE LOFT

When asked the secret of his great choruses, esteemed conductor Robert Shaw replied, "great singers!" How true this is – no matter how talented the conductor, without great singers the choral sound defies distinction. Ascension is incredibly fortunate in that our choir is comprised of wonderful, talented, and dedicated singers who are the key to our music-making. To help you become better acquainted with your choristers, the next several columns of Notes from the Loft will feature Spotlight on Singers – brief vignettes to introduce your singers in new and interesting ways. This month's column focuses on Mike and Susan Beach, otherwise known as Mr. and Mrs. Verger ~

Mike, a stalwart in the bass section, is retired from the aerospace industry, having worked in rocket science, flight mechanics, and Avionics. He first began singing in his father's choir in 1945; subsequent choral affiliations were in Methodist, Quaker, and Presbyterian churches. He's sung in a men's choir, a civic choir, the Sierra Madre Chorale, and St. Augustine Singers (double quartet). He first began singing in Ascension's choir in 1987, the same year he began attending here. Mike says that he's been married to two women – not concurrently – "one who could not sing and one who sings great!" (For those of you unaware, Mike was a widower . . .) Which brings me to Susan . . .

On my initial Sunday with the choir at Ascension (September, 2000), Mike brought with him a guest soprano, politely asking if she could sing with us. Her name was Susan Ruble - I immediately liked Mike and his effective method of recruiting . . . Long story short, Mike and Susan were married and combined their families (his three adult sons and daughter; her four young sons). Together they've been stalwart members of the choir ever since.

Susan first sang alto at age 13 in the choir at Monrovia Methodist church, where she grew up. About a year later, the new choir director, who happened to stand next to her during a hymn, felt she had some potential and offered her a year of free vocal instruction, thinking he'd get an alto soloist out of the deal - only to discover that he had "another damned soprano" on his hands! Susan took lessons from him for ten years until she attended Cal State LA, where, coincidentally, she met Colette Ostrye – now an Ascension choral colleague.

Sometimes called the Verger's Wench, Susan formerly was the owner/operator of Betty's Answering Service. Recently she placed second in the Occasional Beach Family Cribbage Tournament. Really. The Verger took first place. Susan also sings in Pasadena Pro Musica and the Sierra Madre Chorale. She enjoys choral singing simply because she loves great music.

The next time you hear the rumble of a great Russian bass line or the brilliance of a soprano descant, think of Mike and Sue.
